

Christmas Gift Ideas from the Tuolumne County Historical Society Give the Gift of History

SALE all books listed

Sonora Pass Pioneers—California Bound Emigrants and Explorers 1841—1864—

Author David H. Johnson spent twenty years researching pioneer crossings of rugged Sonora Pass and exploring the terrain on foot. His detailed maps and color photographs graphically illustrate the obstacles that wagon trains and explorers encountered along the Walker River Trail. Biographies of over 300 Sonora Pass pioneers acquaint the reader with these brave souls.

Members and Non-Members $22.50

Tuolumne County, CA - 1909 - Originally published by Sonora's Union Democrat newspaper in 1909, this illustrated book documents economic life, communities and many businesses during a prosperous era in Tuolumne County. Members and Non-Members $5.00

Records of a California Family—Gold Rush Journals and Letters of Sonora's

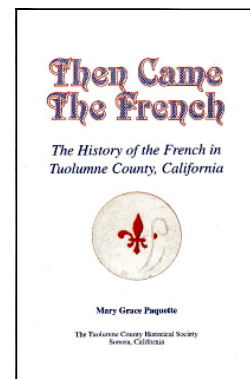

Gunn Family 1849—1859—The illuminating journals and letters of Dr. Lewis C. Gunn and his wife, Elizabeth. Originally published in 1928 by the Gunn family; 2001 Tuolumne County Historical Society printing. This Gold Rush literature classic is now available with an index and a dust jacket featuring an 1856 lithograph of Sonora showing the Gunn family's home. Members and Non-Members $10.00

Melones Memories - First published by the Tuolumne County Historical Society in 1985. The author Milo Bird grew up in the mining town now under the waters of the New Melones Reservoir. He was born in 1895 and in his youth became a self-styled Tom Sawyer. He recalls miner's working conditions, residents, ghosts, and how young boys amused themselves in an isolated mining town. He worked in the nearby Carson Hill mine and later attended Stanford University. His writing style brings to life his recollections of the early part of the 20th century. Members and Non-Members $7.50

Then Came the French - Written by Mary Grace Paquette and filled with numerous photographs, this book recaptures the flavor of the 19th century while tracing the history of many French-speaking argonauts and their activities in and around Tuolumne County. Members and Non-Members $5.00

When Steam Was King - Professional photographer Gerald French takes the reader on a historical and pictorial journey of the railroads that were integral to the lumber industry of Central California. Featured in this book are Pickering Lumber Company, West Side Lumber Company, Empire City and the Stanislaus Railway. Also included is the passenger railroad, the Sierra Railway which is often called the "Movie Railroad." Members and Non-Members $20.00

CHISPA, Bound—Volume 1, July 1961—June 1971; Volume 2, July 1971—June 1981; Volume 3, July 1981—1991; Volume 4, July 1991—July 2001 Members and Non-Members $20.00 Each Volume

CHISPA—All issues Members and Non-Members $1.00 Each